NOVEMBER BIRTHDAYS

Hannah Rose 2nd
Veda Lutjin 11th
Ethel Davis 14th
Bev Bucklinger 16th

HAPPY BIRTHDAY this week
to Veda Lutjin

The clock of time is wound but once,
And no man has the power
To tell just when
The hands will stop,
At late or early hour.

To lose one's wealth
Is sad indeed.
To lose one's health is more.
To lose one's soul is such a loss
That no man can restore.

Approximately forty-one people died while you read this short poem. Checking the statistics on line today, November 3, 2016, every hour 6,316 go to meet their Master. You could have been among them, and sooner or later you will be. ARE YOU READY?

Two of my favorite verses of Scripture are, "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me" (Galatians 2:20). And "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 2:5).

I believe Brother James E. Gibbons gave a very good commentary on this when he said, "The mindset of a Christian must be that of a Christian or he cannot be a Christian."

Do you have the mind of Christ?

Need Washing?

Reprinted from The Bona Beacon – November 6, 2016 – Author unknown

A little girl had been shopping with her Mom in Target. She must have been about 6 years old, this beautiful red-haired, freckle faced image of innocence. It was pouring outside. The kind of rain that gushes over the top of rain gutters, so much in a hurry to hit the earth it has no time to flow down the spout. We all stood there under the awning and just inside the door of the Target.

We waited, some patiently, others irritated because nature messed up their hurried day. I am always mesmerized by rainfall. I got lost in the sound and sight of the heavens washing away the dirt and dust of the world. Memories of running, splashing as carefree as a child came pouring in as a welcome reprieve from the worries of my day.

The little voice was so sweet as it broke the hypnotic trance we were all caught in, "Mom; let's run through the rain," she said. "What?" Mom asked. "Let's run through the rain!" she repeated. "No, honey. We'll wait until it slows down a bit," Mom replied.

This young child waited about another minute and repeated: "Mom, let's run through the rain." "We'll get soaked if we do," Mom said. "No, we won't, Mom. That's not what you said this morning," the young girl said as she tugged at her mom's arm.

"This morning? When did I say we could run through the rain and not get wet?" "Don't you remember? When you were talking to Daddy about his cancer, you said, 'If God can get us through this, He can get us through anything!'"

The entire crowd stopped dead silent I swear you couldn't hear anything but the rain. We all stood silently. No one came or left in the next few minutes. Mom paused and thought for a moment about what she would say. Now some would laugh it off and scold her for being silly. Some might even ignore what was said. But this was a moment of affirmation in a young child's life. A time when innocent trust could be nurtured so that it will bloom into faith.

"Hey, you are absolutely right. Let's run through the rain. If God lets us get wet, well, maybe we just needed washing!" Mom said. Then off they ran.

We all stood watching, smiling and laughing as they darted past the cars and yes, through the puddles. They held their shopping bags over their heads just in case. They got soaked. But they were followed by a few who screamed and laughed like children all the way to their cars.

And, yes I did. I ran. I got wet. I needed washing.

Circumstances, or people can take away your material possessions, they can take away your money, and they can take away your health. But no one can take away your precious memories. So, don't forget to make time and take opportunities to make memories every day. "To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven" (Ecclesiastes 3:1)

I hope you still take the time to run through the rain!
