WHAT IS YOUR GOD?

PRIDE makes a god of self, covetousness makes a god of money, sensuality makes a god of the belly, whatever is esteemed or loved, feared or served, delighted in or depended on, more than God, that (whatever it is) we do in effect make a god of. —Selected—

Remember the student preachers in your prayers whom we support at B.I.M.: Jordan Allen, Alex McCutcheon, Isaac McCutcheon, Evan Welch, Mathias Williams.

A note from Jerry Sullins, B.I.M. Director, informed us that due to his illness Mathias had to drop out of school for the time being, and Alex McCutcheon had to drop out for personal reasons.

Upset!

With regard to the outcome of the national election, “upset” seems to be the right word—and in more ways than one. It obviously was not what most of the pollsters, predictors, or commentators expected. We are hearing some call it the biggest upset in American history. And, in the aftermath, we are seeing from some another kind of upset: the kind expressed by either heartbroken tears, panicked fears, or angry jeers.

This might be a good time for us to pause and reflect a bit. Here are some thoughts about living in our country that impress me now even more than usual.

Obviously none of us always know, much less have control over, how things like this in civic life are going to turn out. This is so even with all our means of organizing, persuading, or measuring. Isn’t it therefore folly for any of us to allow our entire mood and our whole outlook on life be determined by political outcomes—or for that matter, by anything that can change so quickly and unpredictably?

And, isn’t there wisdom in constitutionally based, rather than personality invested, government? After all, whatever power one executive has to simply do things on his own authority may well one day be in the hands of another with a very different outlook. We might do well to give thanks for, and to be more careful about, our form of government.

But government is not God. This truth needs to be impressed upon all our minds, whether we are on the right or the left. Neither political leaders nor parties are worthy of religious devotion. The more the secular world makes government a god, the more approaches to elections take on a religious fervor, and the more reactions to their not going as someone wants are apocalyptic.

It would help if we would regard persons as individually and equally responsible to God. When we have gone about the whole thing by lumping people into blocks, then assigning motives and moral standing to all of them as groups, pitting entire groups against each other, it will be impossible not to be “upset” if someone else wins.

Of course we have convictions, opinions, and preferences about these matters. But our tasks Wednesday morning were the same as Tuesday morning: to love God with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength, and to love our neighbors as ourselves.

TO OUR VISITORS

We are so glad that you are with us today, and hope your visit will be such that you are blessed by it. We hope you will come again soon. Our service times are: Sunday Bible study 9:30 A.M. Worship 10:30 A.M. and 6:00 P.M. Wednesday Bible classes 7:30 P.M. Please fill out a visitor’s card and drop in the collection plate. Please turn off all cell phones.

PLEASE REMEMBER THE FOLLOWING IN PRAYER:

Pat Warren is recovering very well from her recent knee replacement.

Due to his illness with Hodgkin’s Disease Mathias Williams has had to drop out of school for this year. He hopes to return with the 2017 fall class.

THOSE OF THE LINCOLN CONGREGATION INCLUDE: Jimmy & Darlene Coggins, Ethel Davis, Jody Clymer, Rodney Carr, Dixie Duncan, Jim & Beverly Leatherman

Carol Chenier will have surgery December 2nd to remove a toe.

Lois Emond is now in the Lincoln Nursing Center for rehab following surgery.

Many are asking about Charles Rose’s condition. He received the results of all the tests (ultra sounds, MRI etc.) Tuesday. The doctor said there are no tumors, no blockages or anything that would be “out of the ordinary” for his age. The right side of the brain which controls balance is weaker than the left side and his problem of unsteadiness of walking is apparently caused by the stronger left side pulling him in that direction.

MID-WEEK BIBLE STUDY SCHEDULE

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday falling on Thursday our mid-week study will be this coming Tuesday at 7:30 pm.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION & POTLUCK LUNCH

NOW THANK WE ALL OUR GOD

Now thank we all our God
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done
In whom the world rejoices.
Who from our mother’s arms
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God
Thru all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us.
And keep us in His grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this wicked world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son and Him who reigns
With them in highest heaven.
The one eternal God
Whom earth and heaven adore -
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be ever more.
