WHY NOT PREACH WHAT THEY PREACHED?

Carol Sites

In the year 1804, Barton W. Stone preached at the famous Cane Ridge Revival. An estimated 20,000 people heard him preach. Later, as he looked back on this effort, Stone said, "The words of Peter rolled through my mind. I thought, if Peter were here, this is what he would preach. I arose and preached the same thing, and urged them to comply." Why not? Why not preach what Peter preached? Why not preach what Paul preached? Why not preach what Philip preached: why not?

Is someone so bold as to say that what they preached is no longer relevant? Is preaching against sin relevant? Is teaching men how to be saved relevant? Is preaching Jesus Christ, and Him crucified relevant? Has the gospel they preached lost its power? Does His word no longer work effectually in the heart of the believer?

The truth of the matter is that Paul, by inspiration of the Spirit, wrote that no apostle, no angel from heaven, and no man is permitted to preach any gospel other than what they preached (Galatians 1:6-9).

This being the last Sunday of August we will spend the evening service singing. Do you have a favorite hymn, or perhaps a new hymn for us to learn? Have it ready for our song-leaders when they call for them.
